The Alameda Architectural Preservation Society

2010 MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

Dear members and friends of AAPS:

To those of you who have supported us in the past, we thank you very much. Without your dues we would not be able to send out newsletters and sponsor lectures on topics of interest to you and the community.

Some of you have been receiving our mailings as a result of a recent home purchase, from expressing an interest in our organization, as a homeowner on the Alameda Legacy Home Tour or as a Preservation Award recipient. If you would like to continue to receive the newsletter and to not pay the $5 admission to attend our meetings, we encourage you to join AAPS. Also, your support enables us to continue our preservation and education efforts in Alameda. In addition, we represent the interests of Alamedans who care about Alameda's historic buildings and legacy at the Naval Air Station with presentations to the City of Alameda, US Navy and developers such as SunCal.

Here are some highlights for AAPS this past year:

- Presentations at our General Membership Meetings: "Marcuse & Remmel—A New Approach" Woody Minor; "Restoring Deteriorating Wood" by Smith & Co., and: "History of Alameda Naval Air Station" by Dick Rutter
- Twelfth Annual Preservation Awards
- Woody Walk showcasing Alameda Avenue and the Meyers House Museum
- Participation in the City's "Preservation Season" highlighting Preservation Award Winners
- Work with the city to eliminate illegal demolitions and search for improved incentives to preserve and maintain old structures
- Highly successful Alameda Legacy Home Tour benefiting both AAPS and the Alameda Museum
- Annual Holiday Party

We hope that you have attended AAPS activities in the past and will continue to do so in the future. Please look for the next 2010 newsletter, which will include a calendar of upcoming events that we hope will interest you. We also encourage you to offer suggestions for activities that you would like to attend.

Sincerely, Holly Sellers, Membership Committee (510) 521-2299
